Public dance in Worthen hall Friday night. Gents 35c, ladies free. Refreshments.

"Hit the trail" Columbus day for city hall, Montpelier. World series, admission, 25c.—adv.

Mrs. Madine Dix of Plainfield is visiting at the home of Mrs. A. P. Burnham of Ferry street for a few days.

H. A. Gould of Spaulding street left last night for Boston and Philadelphia to spend several days on business.

Anna Nilsson and Tom Moore in "Who's Gilty?" also Jackie Saunders in "The Grip of Evil" at the Bijou to-day.—adv.

All the men of the Barre class of the First Baptist church are invited to spend a social hour this evening at the parsonage, 27 Franklin street.

New line of latest hats and trimmings just arrived at Mrs. H. S. Miles' millinery parlors, 205 1/2 North Main street, over Dodge's jewelry store.

Miss Marie Wardwell, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Annie McGue of the Morse block, returned to her home in St. Albans yesterday.

Mrs. John Daniels and Mrs. Henry Taylor left last night for Bellville, N. J., where they will visit at the home of their mother, Mrs. John Reid, for a few days.

Miss Alice Romhard arrived in the city last night and will visit friends in Barre and vicinity for several days. Miss Romhard will return to her home in Burlington during the latter part of the week.

William Forbes, who has been employed as a bell hop at Hotel Barre for several months, completed his duties yesterday and began work this morning in the Hub restaurant, which was recently purchased by his mother, Mrs. John Forbes.

Miss Irene Calcegni and John Calcegni of Vine street left last night for Milford, N. H., where they will visit friends and relatives during the next two weeks. While away they will spend a few days in Boston and nearby cities as guests of friends.

Raymond Wishart, who is taking a vacation from his duties in the Granite Savings bank, and James J. Levee, on leave of absence from the Tilden Shoe Co.'s store, left this forenoon for Boston, expecting to attend the baseball game to-morrow between Boston and Brooklyn.

Thomas Nichols of Highland avenue, a member of the football squad at Spaulding high school, who suffered a severe sprain of the left knee while practicing with the team several days ago, is able to be about with crutches and expects to rejoin his teammates before the end of the week.

D. S. Waterman of Washington street, who is taking a vacation from his duties as city letter carrier, left last night for Cambridge, Mass., where he is passing several days with his son, P. W. Waterman. During his absence Thomas Nelson of Merchant street is doing letter carrying duty.

The Goddard seminary team went through a stiff scrimmage yesterday. While the team put up a scrappy game Saturday against the heavier Middlebury second eleven, they showed some marked defects in the line men's offensive play when the backs were trying to gain through the line. The team as a whole seems to be playing a great deal better since Saturday's game and with Smith back in the lineup they will appear much stronger in their next game with Norwich university.

About twenty-five friends of George Ross gathered at his home on Harrington avenue last evening to give him a pleasant surprise on his 21st birthday. The members of the party presented him a ring, and he was the recipient of many most beautiful presents. Games of various kinds were played throughout the evening, with a short musical program to help complete the evening's entertainment. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were enjoyed.

C. F. Smith, auctioneer, was in Cabot yesterday holding a sale for John S. Barr. Several people in the crowd remarked that it was one of the most successful sales and one of the largest crowds ever got together in that section at an auction sale. Nineteen cows were disposed of from $38 to $90 per head; 10 of them averaged $76.20; the whole lot averaged $83.70. This was the largest average that has been reported this season for grade cows. One two-year-old brought $80; one pair of horses, $380; one single horse, $185; one other single horse, $150. Farm tools and household furniture brought good prices. Mr. Smith is at Kent's Corner in Calais to-day holding the big sale of the H. A. Kent estate, real estate and personal property.

Guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning included the following people: Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wheeler of Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. Sears, F. W. Sears, Mrs. Turk, Miss Hendee and David O. Smith of Burlington; Mrs. F. L. Cone, Mrs. C. Cone, Miss Hazel Cone, Winifred Cone, Mrs. C. E. Macey, Mrs. James Hunter and H. M. Davis of Windsor, F. L. Cheney of Rutland, W. W. Lammoreaux of Burlington, George A. Cross of Northfield, Miss Harriet E. Harper of Somerville, Mass., P. L. Smith of Plattsburg, N. Y., Miss Susie Manning of Waterbury, J. W. Parker of Burlington, J. William C. Wheeler, a real son of the American Revolution, arrived in the city yesterday from his home in Marshfield and is making a brief visit with acquaintances here. Mr. Wheeler is one of the very few surviving sons of the war.

Perhaps the only man in New England who can lay claim to the distinction of being a Vermontor in 1847. His father, he says, served under General Greene in the Carolina and New Jersey campaigns, and saw much active service as an aide to a commander whom Washington regarded as one of his most trusted officers. Mr. Wheeler is in excellent health and believes that he inherits much of his vigor from his Revolutionary father.

STATE W. C. T. U. IN CONVENTION

livered by Mrs. I. H. Read of Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Through the untiring efforts of the local entertainment committee ample accommodations have been provided for the visitors and everything possible is being done to make their stay in Barre memorable. Meetings are all open to the public and thus far the response has been of a nature to encourage the leaders in the convention.

VERMONT COLONIAL DAMES

Hold 19th Annual Meeting at Montpelier—Some New Officers Chosen.

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Vermont Society of Colonial Dames was opened at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Bailey hall, Montpelier, by Mrs. George H. Smilie of Montpelier, the presiding officer. Prayer was said, following which the members sang "A Song of Old Vermont," the words of which are by Mrs. E. R. Pember of Wells.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Frank E. Lowe of Montpelier, in which she urged the ladies to "use all their influence to preserve peace and thus show themselves worthy descendants of the women they had come here to honor." The response of Mrs. C. S. Caverly of Rutland was read, in her absence, by Mrs. George Allen of Fair Haven. Mrs. F. E. Marsh of Brandon, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, brought greetings, as did Mrs. A. S. Isham of Burlington, representing the Daughters of 1812.

The minutes of the 18th annual meeting at Burlington, Oct. 19, 1915, were read by Mrs. George H. Bickford of Bennington, recording secretary, and were approved. Mrs. Smilie stated that Mrs. Mason S. Stone of Montpelier, recording secretary, had resigned, Mrs. C. H. Baldwin of Montpelier filling the vacancy. Mrs. Baldwin, in her report, stated that 13 letters had been sent out and 285 invitations for the annual meeting. Miss M. M. Tuttle of Poultney submitted her report as treasurer. In the absence of Mrs. Albert Tuttle of Fair Haven, auditor, her report was read by Mrs. George Allen, and the treasurer's report was accepted. Mrs. C. A. Best of Montpelier, registrar, submitted the following report:

"Since our last annual meeting, we have added the following names to our list of membership, 16 in number: Miss Anna M. Burton, West Lebanon, N. H.; Mrs. Ethel W. Pember, Granville, N. Y.; Mrs. Eunice P. Kendall, West Lebanon, N. H.; Mrs. Cornelia V. D. Russell, Burlington; Mrs. Agnes Ware Paul, Granville, N. Y.; Mrs. Lillian Horton Hull, Windsor; Mrs. Alta Starr Cressey, Brattleboro; Mrs. Cora Hatch, Brattleboro; Mrs. Lucia Sutton Stewart, Middlebury; Mrs. Frances Wood Huntley, Middlebury; Mrs. Anna Chandler Dwinell, Montpelier; Mrs. George E. Constantine, New York; Miss Hattie Porter, New York; Mrs. Sanford I. Lane, Ottawa, Canada.

"We now have 282 names left on our list, about 150 having dropped out by death and withdrawal. During the four years of my term, I have sent out 62 application papers; 53 of these have been filled, returned and passed. Two are now awaiting more data. I have issued 10 certificates of membership and 16 insignia permits. We have 430 records bound in seven large volumes, and I shall have the eighth when my term is complete."

The report of the registrar was followed by that of Mrs. Wallace G. Andrews of Montpelier, who is in charge of the genealogical library of the society. It is expected that this library will be housed in the new state building in Montpelier and so arranged as to be of the greatest use to the public. The number of volumes in the present library at the State House has increased rapidly during the past five years, until now it is the largest of its kind north of Boston, with the exception of the one at Portland.

Mrs. Andrews stated that preference was given Vermont and New England genealogies and on motion of Miss Jennie Valentine of Bennington the sum of $250 was voted for the genealogical director for the coming year. In seconding the motion, Mrs. C. A. Best stated that the society should spend its force in one direction so as to do something worthy. Mrs. W. T. Dewey of Montpelier endorsed this very necessary work. The society now owns over 80 genealogies and histories.

In the absence of the first vice-president, Mrs. Smilie stated that a call had come to the society for money to be contributed to the welfare of the Vermont troops at Eagle Pass, Texas, and the sum of $50 had been forwarded. Miss Tuttle reported that the new membership list would be sent out shortly. Mrs. Pember offered her report as historian.

The required length of time having passed, article four of the constitution was amended in order that the genealogical director be made a member of the board of management for a term of four years. The officers nominated by the board of directors to fill vacancies were elected by the society as follows: Third vice-president, Mrs. C. S. Caverly, Rutland; fourth vice-president, Mrs. S. E. Pingree, Hartford; registrar, Mrs. Frank E. Lowe, Montpelier. The name of Mrs. Best appears on the ballot for the office of registrar but Mrs. Best has since offered her resignation, which the board accepted reluctantly, expressing appreciation for her services as a valuable officer. Mrs. Wallace Andrews of Montpelier becomes a member of the board under the amended constitution as genealogical director, while Mrs. C. H. Baldwin of Montpelier serves as corresponding secretary, her term expiring with that of the president. The term of Mrs. S. E. Pingree of Hartford expiring, Mrs. J. L. Martin of Brattleboro was elected third member of the board of management for a term of four years.

Following contracts, solos in costume by Miss Marion Bickford, Mrs. Smilie introduced Professor K. R. B. Flint of Norwich university, who gave a stirring and instructive address on "The Making of the Fourteenth State." Professor Flint's address was replete with historical data and was enlivened by many interesting descriptions of the manners and customs of those early pioneers who were the builders of the 14th state—Vermont. A vote of thanks was given the speaker and adjournment taken at 5 o'clock.

At 8 o'clock Mrs. Smilie called the meeting to order and introduced Miss Carolyn Blodgett, who gave an interesting program of the songs of the different nations of Europe, giving only the national song of Belgium, the rest being folk songs. Following that, a reception by the president and past officers of the Colonial Dames was held, at which refreshments were served and a social hour ensued.

There's a Limit.

"Does the landlady give you your meals on time?"
(Sadly) Yes, but she won't trust me much longer.—Judge.

Querist—I didn't know New Jersey was in the pie belt!
Baker—It ain't. This here pastry is for use in the production of moving picture comedies!—Judge.

Father—Let me embrace you, my daughter! Mr. Bowker has just asked your hand in marriage.
Daughter—Oh, but father, I could never leave mother!
Father—Well, I will let you take her with you.—Judge.

There is a Real Difference

Cream of tartar, derived from grapes, is used in Royal Baking Powder because it is the best and most healthful ingredient known for the purpose.

Phosphate and alum, which are derived from mineral sources, are used in some baking powders, instead of cream of tartar, because they are cheaper.

If you have been induced to use baking powders made from alum or phosphate, use Royal Baking Powder instead. You will be pleased with the results and the difference in the quality of the food.
